1. Randall Standridge has been confirmed as the 2016 AI8GHB director.
2. A follow up reading session is being explored for either next year or the year after.
3. A reminder to all MS/HS Directors to utilize the Literature List on the IBA website. Feel free to add pieces that you have performed that you would like to share with others.

MS HB: 365 8th graders were scheduled for auditions and 508 7th graders were recommended for considerations. All 1st choice 7th graders were selected and then sections were competed by going through the list by numeric recommendation. Every school who sent in a nomination had at least one students selected to represent their school.

- Reminder to all directors to make sure they send with their student 2 ballots for auditions. Waukee had to copy almost 150!
- Todd Woodard and Christa have been in discussion about next year's auditions with the opening of a new building in Waukee.
- Thank you to Waukee band staff, Knoxville, and Pella for being involved in hosting.

Organizing an instrument day at ISU that will be directed toward music ed majors. This will be done in a similar manner to what Joe Messenger (who has previously taught the instrument repair class at ISU) had done. Will be a Saturday in January. Food will most likely be provided as well. Topics to include...what can a band director fix and what needs to go to the shop? Temporary Fixes and a tool kit every band director should have. Area college students will be invited. Exact date and more details to follow.

V. Old Business

All audition Material was reviewed by instrument specific committees and some revamped. Trombones will keep the same etudes. Flutes, oboes, bassoons, and clarinets will use the same book. Horns are changing books. Trumpets are changing to Supplementary Studies by Andressen. Christa has the rotations in the 3 year cycle that will be available in March. Students may use a working copy at auditions as long as the original book is on site. This is consistent with HSHB and All State Auditions.

VI. New business

Preliminary findings of the MS Large Group Ballot Survey-Mary Crandell

60 people responded. 34% were dissatisfied or borderline satisfied. 78% felt the ballots did not reflect the bands' performance. More exploration to come. If you are interested in examining this topic further, please contact Mary.

Kudos to Jayson's comments at the end of each Presidential weekly updates!

Kudos to Sara Smith's composition!

Motion to adjourn at 3:04 by Christa Miller. 2nd by Jana Rutledge. CU.

Respectfully submitted: Cheryl Pittman
